

Investment Objective

Provide a concentrated portfolio of long-only positions in 25-35 Australian and global securities based on the highest conviction ideas from respected fund managers. The Company forgoes any investment fees and instead donates to leading Australian medical research institutes.

Portfolio Commentary

Most markets were sharply down in September. The HM1 portfolio decreased 5.4% for the month, the Nasdaq was down 5.5%, The S&P 500 down 4.9% and the MSCI World Index in AUD was down 4.0%. In this month's update we provide a brief update on the monthly portfolio movements and a deep dive into one of our portfolio holdings Brookfield Corporation. Since inception in November 2018, the HM1 portfolio has delivered an annualised pre-tax investment return of 7.5% pa and has paid dividends totalling 46 cents per share. A reminder that HM1 recently declared an interim fully franked dividend of 7 cents per share. For HM1 shares the ex-dividend date was 20 September and the dividend is payable on 19 October.

September was a tough month for risk assets and our portfolio was not immune. The US 10-year Bond rate moved up 50bps to a cycle high of 4.6%. The message of higher for longer caused growth equities in particular to give back some of their recent gains again this month. Within the HM1 portfolio, we were most impacted by Opthea (-23%), Darling Ingredients (-15%) and Zillow (-11%). On a more positive note, in the Conference Portfolio we sold our holdings in ASML for a gain of 5%, partly disposed of our holdings in Carsales for a gain of 32% and we sold our position in New Relic into the bid to take it private when no new suitors emerged. This was a great call by Ricky Sandler of Eminence Capital and returned 66% over our 10 months of ownership. Ricky will return to the stage again this year with a new pick at the Sohn Hearts & Minds conference on 17 November at the Sydney Opera House.

This month we spoke to Allan Goldstein of Cooper Investors who has just returned from the Brookfield annual strategy day in New York. This is one of their core holdings in the fund and we are delighted to share some of their deep thinking on the stock. You can click here to read more.
